

summer camp

2-4 March 2012

Our camp this year will be at Ohope Christian Camp. It will be a family style camp for anyone who wants to be actively involved in the Mosaic churches in 2012. If you are a current leader, volunteer or are looking at be engaged further this weekend away is for you. We will spend time together, worshipping, learning, praying, eating, having fun and enjoying the beach. It will be an awesome opportunity to talk about Mosaic's vision for 2012, get to know each other better and have a great weekend away!

Our speaker this year is Don Barry from Gateway Church in Hamilton. Don has been in ministry for over thirty years. During that time he has served in three churches - Marton for seven years, Cambridge for eleven and a half years and at Gateway since 1992. He has ministered in numerous nations and has a heart for helping pastors and churches. His passion is to see God's people equipped and released to follow their God-given dreams.
